

Bylaws
Of the
Dilley Public Library

The Bylaws of the Dilley Public Library
July 1996

Article I Name

The name of the organization shall be The Dilley Public Library

Article II Purpose

Section A. Vision

The Vision of The Dilley Public Library is an educated citizenry with open access to information and the love of reading and life-long learning.

Section B. Mission

The mission of The Dilley Public Library is to promote, coordinate and facilitate communication and resource sharing to provide quality library information and services to all residents in the service area. The mission will be achieved through the joint efforts of the Library Director, staff, lay representatives, community partners and residents.

Section C. Goals

Specific Goals Of The Dilley Public Library System Are To:

1. Improve the collection of the library in quality, quantity and accessibility.
2. Up-grade and further enhance the level of expertise in providing quality library services.
3. Simulate local financial and civic support to public libraries.
4. Develop library programs to serve the under and non-served residents of the area.
5. Promote the sharing of human resources skills as well as the information educational and cultural resources.